

Naomi Tami Scholarship Memorial Fund

“Don't ask yourself what the world needs. Ask yourself what makes you come alive and then go do that. Because what the world needs is people who have come alive.”

–Howard Thurman

The Naomi Tami Scholarship Memorial Fund was established by the Tami family to honour the memory of Naomi Laura Tami who passed away on May 7, 2013 at the early age of 23. In keeping with Naomi's love of life and passion, the Naomi Tami Scholarship Memorial Fund provides full tuition and fees for students studying at the Academy of Culinary Arts Cambodia, who demonstrates a commitment to excellence, a love of the culinary arts, and who would not otherwise have the opportunity due to financial constraints.

Naomi Tami's Legacy

Naomi Tami had a love for life that was contagious. She was a passionate, caring, and enthusiastic leader - a light to everyone around her. Born in 1990 in Singapore, Naomi had adventure written in her DNA. At the tender age of three, she moved with her family to Cambodia and then in high school, attended Dalat International School in Penang, Malaysia.

Naomi brimmed with excitement, creativity and cheerfulness. She brightened every room she entered and never held back from compassionately serving those in need. Her “joie de vivre” extended to all areas of life, including food. She was passionate about trying new dishes and cooking with and for others. When Naomi explored new cities and countries, she always sought out the most authentic experiences and cuisine.

Her contagious enthusiasm for life and her love for food and adventure led Naomi to pursue choose a career in hospitality and the culinary arts. After studying at the Swiss International School for Hotel Management, she pursued apprenticeships at five-star hotels in Lausanne, Switzerland, Shanghai, China, Taipei, Taiwan, and Sydney, Australia, before graduating.

The Naomi Tami Scholarship Memorial Fund is Naomi's living legacy of enthusiasm, compassion, connection with people, warmth, and passion for new experiences and adventures.
